Questions or doubts expressed to the notary, and in his absence, the Secretary, arising on these points shall be reflected in the minutes and shall be resolved by the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting.
- 16.7. Thereupon, if appropriate, the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting shall declare the General Shareholders Meeting to be validly in session. Absences of shareholders occurring once a quorum for the General Shareholders Meeting has been established shall not affect the validity of the meeting, subject to the provisions relating to the calculation of votes on proposed agreements, in accordance with Article 20 of these Regulations.
- 16.8. Annual and Extraordinary General Shareholders Meetings alike shall be validly established:
- (a) In general, on the first call, where the shareholders present or represented own at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the share capital with voting rights. On second call, the convening of the General Shareholders Meeting shall be valid regardless of the capital in attendance.
 - (b) For the General Shareholders Meeting to be able to validly agree to issue bonds, an increase or reduction of the share capital, the removal or restriction of the pre-emptive rights to acquire new shares, the conversion, merger, spin-off or global assignment of assets and liabilities, the winding up and liquidation of the Company, as well as the transfer the Company's registered offices abroad, or to modify the By-laws, shall require, on first call, the presence of shareholders present or represented owning at least fifty percent (50%) of the share capital with voting rights. On second call, the attendance of twenty-five percent (25%) of such capital shall be enough.

- (c) For the Annual General Shareholders Meeting to be able to validly agree to reduce the call period for Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting, shall require the affirmative vote of at least two thirds (2/3) of the share capital with voting rights.

- 16.9. If, in order to validly adopt a resolution regarding one or several items on the agenda of the General Shareholders Meeting, the attendance of a certain percentage of share capital is required under applicable legal or statutory rules, and this percentage is not reached, or the consent of certain interested shareholders is required and they are neither present or represented, the General Shareholders Meeting shall be limited to deliberation on those agenda items in which the valid adoption of an agreement does not require the attendance of such a percentage of capital or such shareholders.

- 16.10. If for any reason it is necessary or advisable to hold the meeting in separate locations, under the provisions of Article 12 above, proper media shall be provided to allow for the recognition and identification of the attendees, real-time interactivity and intercommunication, and thus, the continuity of the meeting, including also, where it is so envisaged in the call for the Meeting in question, participation in and issuance of voting.

- 16.11. The provisions set out in this Article shall be deemed without prejudice to the minimum quorum required by legal provisions or the Company's By-Laws.

Section Two.
Shareholder Participation Round

Article 17.- Participation Requests

- 17.1. Once the General Shareholders Meeting is validly established, shareholders in the exercise of their rights who wish to speak during the General Shareholders Meeting participation round, shall identify themselves to the Secretary, or if applicable, the Notary (or persons assisting these), presenting their National Identity Card or equivalent identification document if they are foreigners, and their attendance card stating the number of shares that they own and the shares they represent. Both documents will be returned once they have been heard. If they wish for their speech to be recorded in the minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting, they shall submit it in writing, at the time, to the Notary, or the Presiding Committee to refer to as the shareholder's speech is delivered.
- 17.2. Administrators may set out in the call that any speeches and proposed resolutions, under Law, that will be given by persons attending via electronic means, where this possibility is envisaged in the call to the Meeting, must be submitted to the Company prior to the time when the Meeting is convened. That call will lay out deadlines, forms and ways of exercising shareholders' rights as provided by the administrators to facilitate the orderly conduct of the Meeting.
- 17.3. Once the Presiding Committee has the list of shareholders wishing to speak, and before the vote on the issues featured in the agenda, the presentation round will begin.

Article 18.- Participation

- 18.1. Shareholder speeches shall proceed in the order in which they are called by the Presiding Committee. The chair of the General Shareholders Meeting, in view of the circumstances, shall determine the maximum time initially allocated to each speech.
- 18.2. In the exercise of his powers to organize the conduct of the General Shareholders Meeting, subject to other proceedings, the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting may direct and re-order presentations, and in particular:

- (a) may extend, if deemed appropriate, the time initially allocated to each shareholder;
- (b) may request that the parties clarify any issues that have not been understood or have not been sufficiently explained during the presentation;
- (c) may call to order the presenting shareholders, requesting that they limit their presentation to the business before the General Shareholders Meeting, and refrain from making inappropriate statements or exercising their rights in an abusive or obstructionist manner;
- (d) may tell speakers when their time is almost up, so they may adjust their speech accordingly, and when they have exceeded the time allotted. If they persist in the manner described in point (c) above, he may revoke the floor; and
- (e) if he considers that a speech might alter the proper order and normal conduct of the meeting, he may require the presenters to leave the premises and, where appropriate, take the necessary measures to enforce this provision.

Article 19.- Information

- 19.1. During the course of the Meeting, members of the Board of Directors shall be required to provide the information requested verbally by shareholders, under the terms of Article 9.1. of these Regulations, except in any of the circumstances referred to in Article 9.6, or if the requested information is not available at the time of the General Shareholders Meeting. In the event of the latter, the information shall be provided in writing to a mailing address indicated by the shareholder within seven (7) days of the adjournment of the General Shareholders Meeting.
- 19.2. The requested information or clarification shall be provided by the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting, or as the case may be and at the latter's instruction, by the Chairman of the Audit Committee, the Secretary, a Director or, if appropriate, any employee or expert in the field who is present in accordance with Article 14.2 of these Regulations.

Section Three.
Voting and Documentation of Resolutions

Article 20.- Voting on proposed resolutions

- 20.1. Once the shareholders presentations have ended and responses have been given to requests for information pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, the proposed resolutions regarding matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting or which, pursuant to a law, may be submitted to a vote even though not appearing thereon, shall be submitted to a vote.
- 20.2. Each shareholder entitled to attend the General Shareholders Meeting, in the terms provided in article 14 of these Regulations, has a right to vote.
- 20.3. At the General Shareholders Meeting, those matters that are materially separate shall be voted on separately, in particular: (i) the appointment, ratification, reappointment and removal of each director, to be voted on individually, and (ii) changes in the Company's By-laws, each article or group of articles that are not interdependent.
- 20.4. The Secretary shall offer shareholders the option of having the proposed resolutions read aloud or incorporated by reference. If so requested by any shareholder, or even if not requested, if deemed appropriate by the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting, they shall be read aloud. In any event, the attendees shall be informed of the agenda item to which the proposed resolution put to a vote relates.
- 20.5. For each resolution put to the vote, there shall be a determination, at the least, of the number of shares for which valid votes were cast, the proportion of capital represented by those votes, the total number of valid votes, the number of votes for and against each resolution and, where appropriate, the number of abstentions.
- 20.6. Notwithstanding the fact that other alternative systems may be used at the initiative of the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting, the voting on proposed resolutions referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be conducted according to the following procedure:

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

- (a) The voting on proposed resolutions relating to items on the agenda shall be effected via a process of negative deduction. To that end, for each proposal, the votes in favor equal the total number of all shares present and represented, minus the votes against and abstentions (which must be expressly stated). Negative votes and abstentions shall be counted separately.

If the shareholders have presented alternative proposals, these shall be put to a vote following the proposals of the Board of Directors. Once a proposed resolution is adopted, all others on the same subject that are incompatible shall automatically fail, without subjecting them to an express vote, which shall be stated by the board of the Meeting.

- (b) The voting on proposed resolutions relating to items not on the agenda, where such proposals are legally possible, shall be effected via a process of positive deduction. In other words, the votes against will equal all the shares present and represented, minus the votes corresponding to shares whose owners or representatives expressly state that they vote in favor or abstain.

For voting on these proposals, shareholders cast their vote remotely prior to the Meeting shall not be considered either present or represented, unless they have given express instructions.

- 20.7. The shares, which cannot exercise their right to vote under the provisions of Articles 523 and 526 of the Act, shall not be deemed present or represented unless the conflict has been overcome.
- 20.8. Where technically possible, and provided that fulfillment of all legal requirements can be ensured, the Board of Directors may establish electronic systems for vote counting.
- 20.9. Statements containing a direction to vote given to the Notary or the Board, according to Article 20.6 above, may be made individually for each one of the proposals or jointly for some or all of them, informing the Notary or the Board of the identity and status as shareholder or representative of the person voting, the number of shares they represent, how to vote or, if applicable, whether to abstain.

20.10. When a representative holds proxies from several shareholders, he or she may cast votes differently based on the instructions given by each represented party. The representative must preserve his represented party's instructions for one year from the conclusion of the relevant Meeting.

20.11. Exceptionally, votes can be split by Intermediate Entities appearing as shareholders of record, and acting in their own name on behalf of different clients, and following the latter's instructions.

The shareholder shall not exercise the voting rights corresponding to its shares for the adoption of a resolution whose purpose is to: (i) waive an obligation of or grant a right to such shareholder; (ii) provide the shareholder with any kind of financial assistance, including the granting of any guarantee in its favour; or (iii) release the shareholder from obligations resulting from its duty of loyalty in accordance with the provisions of the Law. The shares corresponding to any shareholder incurring in any conflict of interest contemplated in the present section shall be deducted from the share capital in order to compute the voting majority that may be necessary in each case.

Article 21.- Adoption of resolutions and announcement of voting results

21.1. In general, the adoption of resolutions shall require the following majorities:

- (a) Resolutions shall be approved by simple majority of shares present or represented at the Shareholders Meeting, being the resolution adopted when it obtains more votes in favour than against out of the share capital that is present or represented at the Shareholders Meeting.
- (b) To adopt the resolutions mentioned in article 16.8(b) above, if the shares present or represented in the Shareholders Meeting exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the share capital, it will be sufficient if the resolution is adopted by absolute majority. However, it will require the favourable vote of two thirds (2/3) of shares present or represented at the Shareholders Meeting if, on second call, shareholders representing twenty five per cent (25%) or more of the subscribed voting capital, but less than fifty per cent (50%), attend the Shareholders Meeting.
- (c) Reduction of the call period for extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall be adopted only by the affirmative vote of at least two thirds (2/3) of the share capital with voting rights.

21.2. In determining the number of shares on which to calculate the majority required for approval of the various resolutions, the shares in attendance, present and represented at the meeting shall be considered all those on the list of attendees, less the shares whose owners or representatives have left the meeting prior to the vote on the proposed resolution or resolutions in question, and have recorded their withdrawal with the Notary, or failing that, the Secretary or staff assisting them (by way of clarification, such withdrawals shall not affect a quorum).

21.3. The chair of the General Shareholders Meeting shall declare the resolution adopted if he is satisfied of the existence of sufficient votes in favor, notwithstanding any statements made, if applicable, by shareholders to the Notary or the Board on this subject.

Article 22.- Adjournment of the General Shareholders Meeting

It is the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting's duty to declare the session adjourned.

Article 23.- Minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting

- 23.1. The Secretary of the Meeting shall keep the minutes of the meeting for incorporation into the Book of Minutes. Minutes may be approved by the General Shareholders Meeting itself at the end of the meeting, or failing this, and within fifteen (15) days, by the chair of the General Shareholders Meeting of the Meeting and two (2) participants, one representing the majority and one the minority. The minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting shall include the list of attendees, and will contain a summary of the proceedings, verbatim expression of the resolutions adopted and the voting results.
- 23.2. Administrators may require the presence of a Notary to take down the minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting, and shall be required to do so at least five (5) days prior to the date set for the General Shareholders Meeting, whenever so requested by shareholders representing at least one percent (1%) of the capital. In this case, resolutions shall only be effective if recorded in the notarial deed. The notarial deed shall be regarded as the minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting, and notary fees shall be borne by the Company.

Article 24.- Publication of Resolutions

- 24.1. Subject to the registration of recordable resolutions in the Commercial Registry and applicable legal provisions on the publication of corporate resolutions, the Company shall communicate to the Spanish Securities Market Commission, either literally or through a summarized text of the contents of the resolutions approved at the General Shareholders Meeting as a material fact.
- 24.2. The adopted resolutions and voting results shall be published in full on the Company's website within five (5) days following the adjournment of the General Shareholders Meeting. Furthermore, the text of the approved resolutions shall be described in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, in accordance with the provisions of the report template applicable at any given time.

FINAL PROVISION

These Regulations shall be applicable as from the announcement of the General Shareholders Meeting immediately following the one in which they were adopted.
