REGULATIONS OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' ELECTRONIC FORUM OF APPLUS SERVICES, S.A.

Preface

In accordance with Article 539.2 of the consolidated text of the Spanish Companies Act approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010, of July 2 (hereinafter, the "Law") and Article 10 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders Meeting, the Board of Directors of Applus Services, S.A. (hereinafter, "Applus" or the "Forum Administrator") has approved these regulations of the shareholders' electronic forum of Applus (hereinafter, the "Regulations"), which form part of the corporate governance system of Applus relating to the Shareholders' Electronic Forum of Applus (hereinafter, the "Forum") which shall be available from the call to and until the meeting of each Ordinary or Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting and which it can be accessed through Applus website (www.applus.com).

Chapter I Forum Rules

These Regulations contain the Forum's rules of operation. In addition, it governs the enabling and provision of the Forum by Applus, as well as the warranties, terms and conditions of its access and use by its Shareholders and the voluntary associations which may be formed in accordance with applicable regulations.

These Regulations supersedes the Conditions of Use and Privacy Policy of the Applus website (www.applus.com) in respect to the Forum, which therefore shall not be applicable to the access and use of the Forum.

Applus reserves the right to amend, at any time and without prior notice, the presentation, configuration, operation and content of the Forum and these Regulations, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

Chapter II
Acceptance of the Forum Regulation

The entry as a user on the Forum (hereinafter, the "Registered User") and the access and/or its use assumes the full and unconditional acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Regulations.

The condition of Registered User shall be obtained, if applicable, when the requirements provided in Chapter IV below are met and when the form to which its accessed through the Applus webpage (www.applus.com) is filled in.

Applus shall be considered the Forum Administrator under the conditions and with the authority provided in these Regulations, reserving the authority for interpretation in the case of any doubt or discrepancy in its use.

Chapter III Objective and Purpose of the Forum

The Forum is enabled with the sole purpose of facilitating communications with Applus Shareholders, and the voluntary associations which it may form, on the occasion of the call and until the convening of each General Shareholders' Meeting, if applicable.

Registered Users may send, for publication on the Forum, messages with the following sole objective:

- Proposals which are intended to be submitted as a supplement to the Agenda announced in the call.
- Requests for attachment of said proposals.
- Initiatives to reach the percentage required to exercise the minority right provided in the Law.
- Offers or petitions for voluntary representation.

Under no circumstance shall the publication alone of a complementary proposal of the Forum Agenda imply its acceptance nor, consequently, the amendment of the Agenda announced in the Call of the Meeting.

The Forum does not constitute a channel of communication between Applus and the Registered Users.

Therefore, no communication made or published on the Forum may under any circumstance be understood as a notice to Applus for any purposes and, in particular, for the purpose of exercising any right of the Registered User, individually or jointly, nor replacing the legal and Applus Corporate Governance requirements for the exercise of any rights or the development of the initiatives and activities of the Shareholders.

Any rights and authorities the Shareholders wish to exercise shall be carried out through those legal instruments set forth in accordance with the Law and under the corporate governance rules of Applus, without the Forum being, under any circumstance, a valid instrument for those purposes.

Chapter IV Registered Users

The access and the use of the Forum is exclusively reserved for the individual Applus Shareholders and the voluntary Shareholder associations of Applus validly incorporated and registered in the special registry of the National Securities Market Commission pursuant to the second and fourth section of Article 539 of the Law.

In the case of legal entity Shareholders and voluntary Shareholder associations, the representation of the entity seeking to access the Forum shall be provided as shown on the registration form.

Future access and communications on the Forum may require the completion of a special use form.

Access and use of the Forum by Registered Users is conditioned to maintaining at all times the condition of Applus Shareholder pursuant to the applicable regulations or voluntary Shareholder association of Applus duly incorporated and registered.

If Applus, in its capacity as Forum Administrator, has at any time reasonable doubts on the fulfilment of these conditions by a Registered User, it may request Registered User to certify the maintenance of said conditions, being entitled to request as much information or documents deemed appropriate for the verification of the purposes provided herein.

The Forum Administrator may request additional information or suspend or remove Registered Users who do not certify fulfilment of the aforementioned conditions.
